Foreword

...The doors through which we pass,...the corridors,...the minutes of sociabilities before class...the class rooms...youth coming and going... The purpose of the 1959 edition of the Kangaroo is to record the deeds of the boys and girls, who for the past year, embodied the spirit of Killeen High School...In the years to come, the yearbook will keep alive the memories gathered during the under-graduate days. The future years will bring new faces and changes to the school scene, but there shall be for us this record of the friends we knew, the things we did, and the memories that are still dear to us... Yes, this entrance to our school...our beloved K. H. S. that has seen many come and go, stands solidly as the Seniors of each year pass through all too quickly.

WILL E-CHO THRU THE YEARS

The officers of the Student Council are Martha Greer, Recording Secretary; Betty Levy, Treasurer; Minerva Gonzales, Corresponding Secretary; Nancy Guibault, Reporter; Gerard Moran, President; Mr. Seth Munn, Advisor; and Thayne McKnight, Vice President.

Student Council

The Student Council is the student governing body of KHS. This year's council is composed of 36 students, one from each homeroom,

The senior members of the Student council are: Jimmie Ruth Hughs, Glenn Ford, Sandra Adamson, Jerry Sullivan, Minerva Gonzales, and Clay Peebles. One of this year's projects was "new student tags." Each card had the student's name and his classification.

The Freshman members of the Student Council study the constitution. They are Marsha Bradley, Linda Johnston, Carol Michie, Noma Breton, Dennis Rea, Cheryl Williams, Lynn Crume, Dianne Hohn, and Mike Taylor.

The Student Council Constitution was revised by this year's Student Council.

The aim of the Student Council this year was to get the students to participate more in student activities. There were projects throughout the year in which any student desiring could participate.

Other senior members are Gerard Moran, Billy Neimann, Betty Dunn, Carolyn Gardner, Frances Rucker, Hope Hampton, Sandra Adamson, Mike O'Brien, Robert Ledbetter, Eloise Bradley, Mary Scriven, Janis McCrory, Joy Johnson, and Myra Jo Cook.

Membership in the National Honor Society of Killeen High School is a singular honor and is limited to juniors and seniors. Candidates are selected on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

National Honor Society

The officers of the NHS are Pat Headge, Secretary; Billy Gayle Wilson, President; Mrs. Black, Sponsor; Clay Peebles, Vice-President; and Minerva Gonzales, Reporter.

Junior members include Suzanne Whitson, Nancy Guibault, Suzanne Wood, Hazel Turner, Pat Ellis, Paul Burns, Norma Repuyan, Suzanne Sue, and Judy Lawrence.

Billie Jean Veazy, Stephen Schults, Shirley Hyde, Patti Hutton, Sandra Wallesch, Rusty Burson, Mary Ann Simpson, Tillie Ragsdale, Marsha Jordan, and Suzie Andre are shown in the library looking for memorial plaques. The NHS presented one in honor of Joyce Owen to the School.

Initiations are held in the fall and spring semesters. The NHS sponsored several projects this year. One of these was the sale of booster ribbons during football season.

Choir

There are fifty-three members in this year's Killeen High School Choir, under the direction of Don Pugh. They have had several engagements this year. They participated in District competition in Waco.

Shown above is the twelve-voice ensemble. They entertained when a smaller group was requested.

Chosen to participate in All-State Choir in Galveston were Mary Edwards, Betty Dunn, and as an alternate, Janis McCrory.

Above is the choir theory class. This group studies the fundamentals of music.

Besides the A Cappella choir, Mr. Pugh has two other classes of mixed voices. These classes are composed of under-classmen or of first year choir members. They study both music interpretation and music theory.

Cheerleaders

Key Club

The Key Club of Killeen, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, is a service club of Killeen High School. Its membership consists of boys in the upper three grades in high school who must meet certain scholastic requirements and be approved by the principal.

In the above picture are the officers of the Key Club. They are Larry Reding, Vice-President; John Allen Cook, President; and Jimmie White, Secretary.

The Board of Directors is composed of the officers of the Key Club and three other members. They are Mike Bailey, Glenn Ford, and Graham Munn.
